

News Search  go
Advanced search

News ■ Classifieds ■ Yellow Pages ■ Today's Ads

Partly cloudy 81°
5 Day Forecast

Wednesday 23 June, 2010

home : news : business & finance : local business

STUDENT INTERNS -

06/10/2010

Email to a friend  Post a Comment  Printer-friendly

- Business & Finance
  - Local Business
  - Top Finance News
  - Reports and Articles
  - Education
  - Marketplace

- News
- Opinion
- Sports Wire!
- Arts and Living
- Community
- Weather
- Today's Ads
- Legals
- Classifieds
- Yellow Pages
- Fun and Games
- About Us
- Links
- Administrative
- Consumer Guide
- Lifestyles
- ADVERTISING RATES & DATA

Executives from area businesses pose for a group photo with students who will be interning at their companies this summer.

The business people and students from the Academy of Engineering and Green Technology, Pathways to Technology, and High School, Inc, in Hartford participated in an intern orientation training program on May 25 at CBIA.

At the event were, front row: Nancy Bernstein (left), Women's Health, Avon; Heriberto Rodriguez, Pratt & Whitney, East Hartford; Rashonne Davis, MetLife, Bloomfield; and Judy Resnick, CBIA, Hartford; second row: Brian Tacey (left), AT&T, Hartford; Pamela Harris, Milone & MacBroom, Cheshire; Benjamin Diaz, Hartford Hospital, Hartford; Jennifer O'Leary, Edwards Angel Palmer & Dodge, Hartford; Danielle Civitillo, Vanasse Hangen Brustlin Inc., Watertown; Susan Wagner and Rick Boggs, Al Engineers, Middletown; Deb Orosz, Hamilton Sundstrand, Windsor; John Birch, The Birch Group, New Britain; back row: Student interns from the Academy of Engineering and Green Technology, Pathways to Technology, and High School, Inc, in Hartford.

Advertisement

©Town Times 2010

Email to a friend  Post a Comment  Printer-friendly

Copyright © 2000-2010 • Prime Publishers, Inc.
All Worldwide Rights Reserved.

Copyright © 1995 - 2010 All Rights Reserved.